A burn survivor herself,
Marissa inspires other burn survivors to never give up on their dreams.

Camp Courage is a program of the Foundation for Burns and Trauma, Inc., located in Phoenix, AZ. The Foundation's mission is to assist burn victims and their families in becoming burn survivors through rehabilitation, treatment and research; the reduction of death and injury from burns and fire prevention through education; and to serve as an advocacy partner for the prevention of trauma associated with other injuries.
